SELF GOVERNMENT IS ESTABLISHED IN PAPAIAKOU

PRINCIPAL MCCLUSKEY INAUGURATES SYSTEM WHICH TRAINS BOYS AND GIRLS IN DUTIES OF CITIZENSHIP — OVER 200

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED: LAWS MADE AND ENFORCED

SPLENDID WORK TAKEN UP ON SUGGESTION CONTAINED IN SIMILAR SCHEME FOLLOWED ON MAINLAND—THE YOUNG

Hilo, Oct. 16.—Papaia kou school has made an innovation in the conduct of that school by establishing a system of self government whereby the pupils administer all their affairs except those directly pertaining to academic work and methods.

The pupils, two hundred twenty in number, are no longer "children," but "citizens" of a School-County, for the county form of government similar to that of counties in our territory is the pattern.

Wm. McCluskey, the principal, gave an account of his method before a meeting of the Hilo Teachers' Union held in the High School on Friday the 12th inst.

He opened his address with a strong argument in favor of the adoption in our schools of some system whereby the coming citizens may serve some kind of apprenticeship before they are intrusted with the government of a nation.

"What would you think," said the speaker, "of a St. Lawrence River pilot who would take his young apprentice into a nautical school on the woody slopes of the Adirondacks, there to teach him the navigation of that majestic flow of waters? If the object of American schools is to train for citizenship in a great Republic, the pupils should embark on the Ship of State for their training as pilots of the same across the waters of the Political River.

"Instead of this, the youth of our land are subjected to a tyranny in our schools more abject than that of which we read in the World's history, and this during the most formative period of life. We as teachers are not 'guiding' our proteges to be self governing; we are 'cajoling' or 'seducing' and our pupils are not 'citizens' but 'subjects'.

"Organized self government is not natural to mankind. Good Mother nature is the veriest tyrant. The nearer to her a people live, the more autocratic is their form of government. The higher their civilization, the more do they adopt popular forms. We teach our children that Republicanism is the nearest approach to ideal government that the world has yet known. In this plan every citizen is a 'Sovereign,' and teachers are the tutors of these sovereigns.

"Intellectual training is not enough. Industry and obedience to established law must be inculcated and vicious propensities eliminated; nay more, our youth should acquire a practical familiarity with the machinery of government. The acquiring of this develops intellect quite as much as does the study of any other art or science."

Mr. McCluskey called a mass meeting of his teachers and pupils and gave them the "gift" of a charter declaring them citizens of "Papaia kou School-County" possessing the right to administer their school affairs in such manner as to them might seem best, subject only to the regulations laid down by the School Law, which the principal must see enforced.

By popular vote the School-County officers were elected: a Board of nine Supervisors, a County Clerk, a Sheriff, a County Attorney, a County Judge and a County Clerk of the Court, organized to carry out all the functions of government, legislative, executive and judicial.

After their election each officer, with uplifted hands, solemnly promised in the presence of all the citizens to study the charter, to learn his duty and to perform it without fear or favor. In return, the citizens pledged themselves to be loyal and true to their officers, and to help them in the discharge of their various duties.

At their first meeting the Supervisors ratified the Sheriff's appointment of his duties, laid out the boundaries for the districts, and appointed a superintendent of Public Works to look after the School-County property and a commissioner of Health to be responsible for the sanitation of the County.

The Sheriff is the chief executive officer. He and his corps of deputies are responsible for the order of the county and the administration of the laws and ordinances of the legislative body. They were instructed that it is their duty first to advise and warn offenders, that arraignment before the court is a last resort. No officer is allowed to lay hands on a citizen. The procedure of the Court is that of the District Court of the Territory. It holds weekly sessions. Frequently there is not a case on the calendar. So far, judgments have been rendered for only three offenses: absence from school without consent of principal, drinking water at the wrong place and the unauthorized plucking of flowers. Only two of the accused pled "not guilty." One was acquitted and the other sentenced to an hour's work after school under the principal. The work sessions in the court are yet infrequent although the court may subject one proven guilty of violating the Common

Suffered Terribly from Indigestion.

Cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"It is with pleasure that I can testify to the great benefit I derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I suffered terribly from indigestion, and tried several medicines without avail. I was then persuaded to take and after using a few bottles my indigestion was cured, my appetite came back, and I was strong and hearty. This is some years since, and my old complaint has not returned, but I always keep a bottle in the house, and when I feel at all out of sorts a few doses put me right again in quick order."—W. S. or Statute law to any punishment he deems best, not less than a reprimand and not greater than a deprivation of the rights of citizenship. Corporal punishment is of course prohibited. All punishments must be approved by the principal before carried into execution.

The trial of a little fellow was particularly pathetic. His was a case of repeated absence. He pled "guilty." Upon being asked by the court what he had to say for himself before sentence was pronounced he stated that the guardian had forbidden him going to school because of the principal. The Court in turn told him that from nine until two every school day he did not belong to his guardian but to the government. As this was not his first offense he was sentenced; but it was with trembling voice and eyes suffused with dew that the Judge did so. The Judge is a Japanese boy thirteen years old and the little boy thirteen offender a Porto Rican.

Members of both sexes from six to fourteen years were elected to office. Mr. McCluskey affirms that not one undesirable official was elected or appointed, but only such as have in the past shown fidelity.

The Superintendent of Public Works has by far the greatest responsibility. That officer is a Portuguese girl of thirteen, and the efficiency and administrative ability which she brings to the performance of her duties is admirable. One supervisor of six years at the meetings of the board frequently makes motions or seconds them like a man. The Deputy Sheriff of the Fifth District is a boy of six years with but meager knowledge of English, but he discharges his duties with wonderful intelligence.

The officers are chosen from the five nationalities of the school-county. No race prejudice was evident at the popular election. There is no tendency in school-county government toward politics or craft and all indications point to the success of the system at Papaia kou school. You're who in a few years must decide the destiny of our nation are being introduced intelligently and in a practical manner to popular government.

"This work," says Mr. McCluskey, "must not be undertaken lightly. It is not a machine for children but a method for teachers, and entails upon them a vast amount of extra work, as does all methodical teaching. The teacher who turns over the government of his school to the children thinking to be relieved of responsibility will doom his entire work to ignominious failure. As well might one think to set up a time piece by throwing into a box the disconnected works. The teacher must first thoroughly familiarize himself with government procedure in its three branches. The proper time to begin his work is with the infancy of the teacher."

Dear Sirs:—About two years ago a very fine, well bred mare I own got what seemed to be a bad sprain of the fore fetlock, which made her very lame; I blistered her and let her run out for about four months, when I took her up she was better but still lame and got worse when worked. I then tried another kind of blister with about the same results.

Last Spring I bought a bottle of your Save-the-Horse from your agent in this city. After treating the mare with this for about two weeks I have her some slow driving; she improved very much, and by the time I had used up the bottle I was able to drive her twenty or thirty miles without any apparent bad effects. She now goes sound; I also with the same bottle removed two wind galls from her hind legs.

Hoping that this will be of some benefit to you, I am, your truly,
